

Admissions and Financial Aid Committee
Minutes 3/18/08

Dr. Margaret Heely, Director of the Office of Experiential Learning, discussed the programs offered to undergraduate students by her office. She outlined the academic, teaching, service learning and teaching opportunities for students and faculty in the programs and presented examples of past student-faculty partnerships. Committee members discussed potential opportunities for students in their respective schools and departments with Dr. Heely following her presentation.

The next and last meeting of this academic year will be on April 15; a speaker from the Studies Abroad program has been scheduled.
